WEST & NORTH WALES

Developing Numerical Reasoning – Lynwen Barnsley

Target Audience: Teachers & TAs

Cost: £180 plus VAT

Reasoning is fundamental to knowing and doing mathematics, it underpins the other numeracy strands of the LNF and yet it is often the area that is neglected or considered difficult to teach.

Course Objectives:

- understand how to develop numerical reasoning progressively throughout the FP
- understand the specific skills that young learners need to develop
- consider a range of practical ideas for developing reasoning skills, both within focused mathematical tasks and across other areas of learning
- discuss the importance of teacher questioning in supporting the development of reasoning skills
- consider how to enable young children to work independently by providing engaging tasks in continuous and enhanced provision.
